Links from our web site to your web site

We want to introduce our new web site to you and your friends with a free link from our site to your site. All we ask is a link back from your site to our site.

Twice a year the Sparks Antiques and Collectibles Flea Market brings more than 200,000 people to Northeast Kansas and Northwest Missouri for two of the Midwest's largest antiques and collectibles shows. With more than 450 booths – nearly a 1000 dealers -- this show has developed a reputation as a "must see" event for people across America.

These dealers spend 4 – 7 days or more in the area. And, while some visitors to the Sparks Antiques and Collectibles Flea Market come for the day, many come for the week. And, all of them are looking for a variety of services including lodging, restaurants, antique shops and malls, tourist attractions, supplies and much more.

Each year the show promoters mail out over 2000 letters announcing upcoming shows and distribute more than 6,000 cards across the Midwest. Vendors and guests alike are directed to this web site for additional information on the show and local services.

We would like to invite you to take advantage of this huge market and advertise your company with a free link on our Links page at www.SparksAntiquesAndCollectibles.com.

We have three categories for your link: Sparks Vendors; Area Tourism and 'Antiquing'; and, Lodging, Restaurants and Accommodations. All you have to do is place one of the ads below on your web site. Then, send your ad to us and we'll place it on our web site.
